

Activity Name: “Identity”

SDG focus: SDG 4

Aims

- Strategies for written and oral production and interaction. Planning.
- Locating and using adequately linguistic or thematic resources. Select basic information from different sources to support ideas in the written production.
- Producing clear messages, distinguishing their main ideas and basic structure.
- Adequacy to context and register. Execution.
- Revision.
- Self-confidence and assertiveness.
- Use of body language and techniques for oral expression. Social conventions: costumes, traditions, etc.
- Sociocultural and sociolinguistic aspects.
- Cultural and artistic manifestations such as music, sports, literature, celebrations, etc.
- Expression and justification of opinions. Cross-curricular competencies: Communicative competence.
- Strategies for planning, organisation, and management. Critical awareness.
- Approaching their own cultural identity, self-knowledge.
- Finding associations and differences between cultures.

Language focus

- Planning and revision.

Creative focus

- Cultural and artistic manifestations.

Level: B1

Age: 14-15

Time: 45 minutes

Preparation

- Prepare the material: planning template and identity objects. Students must bring objects to class and explain what they mean for them in terms of identity.

Procedure

- Activity 1: Warm-up activity, which consists of presenting an object that identifies the student. Brief presentation of the items in front of the class by each student: 20 minutes.
- Activity 2: Planning an opinion essay on the differences and similarities between the Peruvian culture and the students’ own identity. Fill the planning template (*): 10 minutes.
- Activity 3: Writing the essay following the structure previously organised: 25 minutes.

Follow-up

- If it has not been done in a previous activity, write down some keywords about the relationship between this tale intercultural education and SDG 4.

Aspects to evaluate:

- Communicative competence (oral and written).
- Grammar accuracy.
- Coherence and cohesion (sentences, linking words).
- Varied vocabulary around the topic of culture, tradition, and identity.

Additional resources

(*) Planning template:

Format	ARTICLE
Audience
Style
Content	Grammar	Vocabulary
Introduction		